NOVEMBER 1999

Wed., January 19, 2000!

We are having a friendly get-together, a cocktail party at the landmark Todd Lincoln House in Manhattan. Our guest speaker, Peggy Hartshorn, Ph. D., is the President of Heartbeat International.

Heartbeat's mission is to assist Crisis Pregnancy Centers like ours, and they are really living up to their mission! It is Heartbeat that is coordinating the advertising in the Yellow Pages and on the radio. Peggy is an inspiration to all and we hope all will attend. See the enclosed flyer.

Saturday, March 4, 2000!

We are having our Eighth Annual Dinner Dance. Once again, American Martyrs is giving us the use of their Sullivan Center, and we are very grateful. We will need:

1. many volunteers
2. raffle gifts
3. liquor or wine for our baskets of cheer

All the information is on the enclosed flyer.

Journal Ad Contract is on back of this newsletter.

Anna A. Curran

Will be our honoree. It is her generosity and compassion that has allowed us to proceed in our efforts to open a home for our pregnant and abandoned moms, by naming us the beneficiary of a substantial Charitable Remainder Trust. She well deserves this honor, and we hope everyone will come to meet here and thank her and join us in standing up for Life and enjoying ourselves as well.

Friday, November 5, 1999

Fr. Tim Hirten of Sacred Heart Parish, Bayside, celebrated Mass right here at Bridge. Pizza followed. It was a lovely evening and he will come again in the winter. We will keep you posted.

Tuesday, November 30, 1999

Fr. Tim will again celebrate Mass for all the Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes of Queens @ 8:00 p.m. at the Pope Pius XII Council K of C on Bell Blvd. near 35th Avenue. Please come and pray for Life, Bridge To Life, and all "born and unborn".

Saturday, May 20, 2000

We hope to have next year's Walkathon in May instead of October. We really need a Standing Committee and a leader to run this. Please call us if you can help.

We owe our thanks to BJ's Wholesale Club in College Point, which donated the refreshments for the last two Walkathons. They were not only generous, but also very helpful.
